GET THE TREASURE MAPS BACK!

BUCKS
AND MK

You and your fellow explorers have been working out of your fancy treehouse. You have opened the windows to get some fresh air in as you have been working at locating some more treasures for a long time. You have used ancient books and scrolls to make some maps of where your next haul could come from. A swift gust of wind has come through the trees and your treasure maps have all been blown out the window! We need to get them back!

You need to get them all back but they are scattered all across the forest! The scrolls that you have drawn your maps on are very big and heavy meaning you can only carry one at a time back to your base. You need to be quick though, you do not want all your hard work to fall into the hands of any fellow explorers! How quickly can you get your maps back safe and sound?
